

ESOL International
English Speaking Examination

Level C2 Proficient

Instructions to interlocutor

Please give the learner the correct sheets for the scenarios being used in the examination for Part Two and Part Three.

The learner must complete two scenarios for Part Two and one scenario for Part Three.

Do not allow the learner to take the prompt sheet from the room.

Do not allow the learner to see the additional prompt sheets for the scenarios not being used.

Part Two

Situation 1: You want to buy a gift for your best friend or a member of your family. It is for a very special occasion. You go into a shop and ask the shop assistant to help you to choose something. You explain why the gift has to be very special. What would you say?

Part Two

Situation 2: You have forgotten to do an important task that you had been asked to do. This means that someone else cannot complete what they have to do. You have to apologise. What would you say?

Part Two

Situation 3: Your friend does not want to visit a museum that you want to go to. You can choose whatever museum you want, even in another country. You have to say why your friend should go with you and what benefits there will be to him/her. What would you say?

Part Three

Scenario 1: You think that every country should have a royal family. Your friend, however, is not convinced that this is a good idea. Speak to your friend and try to convince him/her it might be a good idea. You will have two minutes to prepare your arguments. I will take the place of your friend.

Part Three

Scenario 2: You think that all councils should provide recreational facilities such as swimming pools free of charge. Your friend, however, is not convinced that this is a good idea. Speak to your friend and try to convince him/her it might be a good way to increase the level of participation in sport. You will have two minutes to prepare your arguments. I will take the place of your friend.
