Part 2 - Responding to the situation/ general use of English in formal and informal environments

The purpose is to differentiate between formal/informal register, to assess accuracy and grammar appropriate for Level C1 and assess learner's pronunciation.

Skills	3 marks	2 marks	1 mark	0 marks	Score
Register	Clear distinction between formal and informal situation is made throughout.	Distinction between formal and informal situations is not maintained throughout.	Distinction between formal/informal situations is only attempted.	Learner does not recognise formal/informal register.
Accuracy	A high degree of accuracy in the use of grammatical structures is maintained throughout with few errors, self-correcting errors.	Occasional errors are made but most are self-corrected.	Lack of accuracy occasionally impedes the meaning.	A learner has a significant number of errors which are not corrected.
Pronunciation	Stress, pronunciation and intonation are used in connected speech to convey finer shades of meaning.	Some evidence of the use of stress, pronunciation and intonation is demonstrated with occasional lapses.	Largely unconnected speech where stress, pronunciation and intonation is not used to convey shades of meaning.	Learner's speech is monotonous, and some errors in pronunciation.
Effective communication	Clarity of interaction with controlled use of discourse organisation, connectors and cohesive devices. Able to backtrack when encountering difficulty. Confident in management of turn taking.	Mainly controlled use of discourse organisation, connectors and cohesive devices with occasional errors. Mainly confident in management of turn taking but occasional hesitations.	Minimal evidence of discourse organisation and use of connectors and cohesive devices. Limited evidence of using appropriate turn taking conventions.	No evidence of discourse organisation and appropriate turn taking management.
