'Dear Sir/Madam'

Before one week ^{WW} (a) buy a new computer and recently ^{O - missing word 'it'} is not working. So I'm writing this letter to ^T (a) complaint ^{O - missing word before 'the' consider 'about'} the problems of the computer.

First of all as ^{Gr} (i) ^{Sp} used ^{WO} before one week. It was a gift from my parents for my ^{Sp} berthday.

When I ^T (take) the computer and ^{Gr} (i) ^{Gr} open it ^{Gr} (i) saw a lot of faults for example: when ^{Gr} (i) changed the language ^P computer ^{T - opened, P - after} change it again. The sound of the computer was very bad when ^{Gr} (i) started to play video games ^T computer get my out of the game Comp - does not make sense

This computer ^{Gr} (do) ^{Initial} this all think all the time and ^{Gr} (i) never can use ^{Initial} them. I have had it one week and I don't use this computer.

Fm - no formal ending to the letter

Comments:

- Pass
- Good spelling demonstrated, correct word count.
- No formality in salutations.
- Poor use of tenses and many incorrect words used.
- Punctuation needs development in use of capital letters.
- Some word order errors which impede comprehension.
- Paragraphs used effectively.
